C23/035 Town Mayor's and Deputy Town Mayor's Reports of Engagements

The Town Mayor's and Deputy Town Mayor's reports of engagements, which had been previously circulated, were noted.

The Town Mayor informed the Council that everyone who had attended the celebrations and festivities held over the Queen's Platinum Jubilee weekend seemed to have enjoyed themselves and he thanked all who had been involved in the organisation of the Proclamation and Tree Planting (on Thursday afternoon), the Beacon Lighting (on Thursday evening), the Jubilee Church Service (on Saturday afternoon) and Big Lunch and Party in the Park (on the Sunday).

The Town Mayor said that he had been pleased with the numbers of people that had supported the events.

The Town Mayor also made special mention of Festival Week and Carnival Day where he had again been pleased to see lots of people from Stone out at each of the events. He thanked the behind-the-scenes organisers who had made the occasions possible.
